

News from Saland for Senate

Saland endorsed by Columbia County Corrections Officer's Benevolent Association

Proven record fighting for public safety needs

For Immediate Release: Wednesday, August 11, 2010

Contact: 845-489-2977

POUGHKEEPSIE, NY- Senator Steve Saland announced today he was endorsed by the Columbia County Corrections Officer's Benevolent Association, Local 3828, Council 82, Security and Law Enforcement Union, AFSCME, AFL-CIO. Brian Gardner, President of Local 3828 cited Saland's "support of law enforcement in New York State" as the driving force behind the endorsement.

Senator Saland works closely with law enforcement at the local, county and state levels to ensure safety in our community and within our prisons. He has sponsored numerous laws which aid law enforcement to put criminals behind bars, including rapists, identity thieves and drunk drivers. He authored the Family Protection and Domestic Violence Prevention Act, considered to be the most significant law to combat domestic violence ever passed in the State of New York.

"It is a great honor to receive the support of these hard working men and women who provide a critical and valued service, ensuring our safety in the community, said Saland. "Correction officers face difficult challenges every day and I thank them for their commitment to our safety and for their support."

Senator Steve Saland is the endorsed candidate of the Republican, Independence, and Conservative Parties. He has resided in Dutchess County nearly all his life. He and his wife Linda live in the Town of Poughkeepsie; they are proud parents of four children and four grandchildren.

###